“We are happy in being able to say that this ingenious lady is employed on another work of fancy. Her last production, The Wanderings of Warwick, is rich in beauties. In justice to this charming novelist, we beg leave to inform our readers, that the novel of u003ciu003eD'Arcyu003c/iu003e was not written by Charlotte Smith, as the publisher pretended. Nor was it our Charlotte Smith who was lately divorced from her husband.” – Anthologia Hibernica, February 1794
